Within the Town of Colchester
Establishing Historic District and Commission

May 12, 1969

I. The Immediate Vicinity of Colchester Center, known as Colchester Center Historic District

Section 1. The boundaries of the Historic District are as follows:

South side of the highway from Colchester Center to Sandwich Pond.
North side of the highway from Colchester Center to Exeter.
West side of the highway from Colchester Center to the Rte. 117.
East side of the highway from Colchester Center to the Rte. 117.

2. The boundaries established within the Town of Colchester to preserve and protect buildings and districts of historic interest are described in Section 7-147(2) through 7-147(2)(e) of the General Statutes. Historic Districts established are:

A. A Special Town Meeting of the Town of Colchester, on May 1, 1969, the following ordinance was enacted:
Section 4. Any excess of funds derived from the liquidation of the Board's assets not required to be applied to the payment of the principal and interest on the bonds and unpaid interest thereon shall be deposited in the general fund of the City of Colorado Springs and used for the purposes for which the bond monies were issued.

The Secretary-Treasurer of the Board shall be the Chief Bookkeeper and in like capacity, keep accurate accounts of all funds received and expended and shall issue receipts therefor, and all books of account, financial statements and all records relating thereto shall be kept in a safe place in the City of Colorado Springs.

The Secretary-Treasurer of the Board shall be the Chief Bookkeeper and in like capacity, keep accurate accounts of all funds received and expended and shall issue receipts therefor, and all books of account, financial statements and all records relating thereto shall be kept in a safe place in the City of Colorado Springs.

Any person who shall fail or neglect to pay any part or all of the principal or interest on the bonds shall, upon the order of the Board, be held liable therefor, and the Board may, at the expense of such person, sue for the recovery of the amount due, and all costs of such action shall be paid by such person.

The Board shall have the right to enforce the provisions of this Act by the appointment of a receivership or otherwise, and the expenses of such receivership shall be charged to the estate of the person so appointed.

The Board shall have the right to enforce the provisions of this Act by the appointment of a receivership or otherwise, and the expenses of such receivership shall be charged to the estate of the person so appointed.

Any person who shall fail or neglect to pay any part or all of the principal or interest on the bonds shall, upon the order of the Board, be held liable therefor, and the Board may, at the expense of such person, sue for the recovery of the amount due, and all costs of such action shall be paid by such person.

The Board shall have the right to enforce the provisions of this Act by the appointment of a receivership or otherwise, and the expenses of such receivership shall be charged to the estate of the person so appointed.

Any person who shall fail or neglect to pay any part or all of the principal or interest on the bonds shall, upon the order of the Board, be held liable therefor, and the Board may, at the expense of such person, sue for the recovery of the amount due, and all costs of such action shall be paid by such person.

The Board shall have the right to enforce the provisions of this Act by the appointment of a receivership or otherwise, and the expenses of such receivership shall be charged to the estate of the person so appointed.

Any person who shall fail or neglect to pay any part or all of the principal or interest on the bonds shall, upon the order of the Board, be held liable therefor, and the Board may, at the expense of such person, sue for the recovery of the amount due, and all costs of such action shall be paid by such person.