

Town of Colebrook

2020-21 Budget

Key Points

- No tax increase; mill rate stays at 30.9 in 2020-21.
- Uptick in grand list, higher fees from town operations, and elimination of debt service are primary factors.
- Successful outcome of Wind Colebrook South lawsuit removes a big risk, albeit at a cost.
- Coronavirus could impact tax collections in 2020-21, and state aid could be a risk in subsequent years.
- May need additional capital outlays for the CCS mechanical room, drainage, and town garage.

Process

- Normal process of hearing and referendum are suspended due to Coronavirus.
- Town budgets will be approved by Boards of Finance and Selectmen per executive order of Governor Lamont.
- Your comments are welcome tonight and by phone or email through April 30th.
- Final approval by the Board of Finance and Selectmen will be made Monday, May 4th .

To Be Approved May 4th

- The total 2020-21 budget of $6,566,940 including Colebrook's share of Region 7.
- The 2020-21 Capital Improvement Plan of $452,200.
- A supplemental appropriation in 2019-20 of up to $100,000 for legal expenses to defend the lawsuit by Wind Colebrook South.
- A supplemental appropriation in 2019-20 of up to $50,000 for a special education expense that became necessary during the school year.
