Dear Colebrook Voter:

In the next few days, Republican and Democratic voters will be receiving an absentee ballot application from the Connecticut Secretary of the State's office for the Primary on August 11, 2020.

The polls will be open as usual on August 11, 2020 for voting from 6:00 am to 8:00 pm at the Colebrook Town Hall Meeting Room, 2nd floor, 562 Colebrook Road, Colebrook.

If you would like to vote by absentee ballot you may do so by completing the application received and returning it in the postage paid envelope enclosed. If for some reason you do NOT receive your mailing from the state please feel free to visit the town website at www.townofcolebrook.org on the town clerk page you will find a link to an application along with instructions or contact my office directly.

With regards to Absentee Ballot delivery, you may return your ballot in the postage paid envelope included with the ballot, or return it personally, to Town Hall main entrance where a special Absentee Ballot Box is located.

Please do not hesitate to contact the Colebrook Town Clerk's office at (860) 379-3359 temporary ext. 214 or at dmckeon@colebrooktownhall.org

Thank you,
Debi McKeon
Colebrook Town Clerk
