

North Colebrook, Connecticut

December 19, 1962

Zoning Board, Town of Colebrook
Henry Holmes, Chairman
Colebrook, Connecticut

In re: Public Act 430, AN ACT
CONCERNING THE ESTABLISHMENT OF HISTORIC DISTRICTS

Dear Sir:

The historic district study committee of Colebrook, Connecticut, having been duly appointed by a special town meeting on June 12, 1962, herewith presents copy of the report of its investigation of a proposed historic district for the above named town; together with copy of a photographic appendix thereto, in accordance with Section 2 (c) of the above Act.

Under this date, this report is being submitted to the Connecticut Historical Commission, as prescribed in the above section.

In further accordance with the above Act, you will consider and recommend action on this matter within sixty days of receipt of this report. Failure to make recommendations within sixty days after the date of such receipt shall be taken as approval of the report.

Respectfully submitted,

Nancy Phelps Blum, Chairman, for

Committee Members (Dorothy Cooper
(Judge Erving Pruyne
(Harry Williams, Sr.
(Edward Kochey

cc: Conn. Historical Comm'n